

Introduction: When it comes to praying and to accessing the blessings in your Salvation Package, the expressions “in Jesus” and “in Jesus Christ” are synonymous. The expressions “in Christ” and “in Christ Jesus” are also synonymous.

A. Jesus – His Names and His Ministries.

1. Jesus Christ.

The Name of “Jesus” refers to the man Who called Himself “Son of Man” on 85 occasions and Who lived and ministered on the earth for 3 ½ years. We are born again by accepting Jesus as Savior. We are in Jesus (Christ) when we are living with Jesus as our Savior.

The name of “Jesus Christ” refers to the man Who lived on the earth as the Messiah, the Man-Christ, the perfect man, Who would fulfill the Messianic prophecies as the Lamb of God by dying for us. In Jesus Christ we inherit our Salvation Package and access some of our divine inheritance; in particular, we are born again into the Family of God; thus a Christian will go to Heaven if he dies during the Age of Grace. We also minister to others by preaching, teaching, healing and working miracles in the Name of Jesus (Christ).

2. Christ Jesus.

The Name of “Christ” refers to the Messiah, to the Anointed One and His Anointing. As the Christ-Man, He rose from the dead into the Resurrection Power of a new life with a glorified body, sitting at the right hand of His Father until His enemies have been made His footstool.

The Name of “Christ Jesus” refers to the Messiah as the Lion of the Tribe of Judah, the King of kings, Who will return to rule over the earth with a rod of iron. While He is in Heaven, the Body of Christ has been made ambassadors of Heaven on earth to represent the Messiah. As we choose to live with Jesus as our Lord, we operate and live in His stead, in His Name. As we live in Christ Jesus, we have access to the parts of our Salvation Package which are based on His Resurrection Power.
